

Collaborating on
Learning Objects
in Social Science
for Unlimited
(online) Study

Jim Everett
University of Strathclyde

Partners

- ▣ Learning Services, University of Strathclyde
- ▣ Falkirk College of Further and Higher Education
- ▣ Fife College of Further and Higher Education
- ▣ Stevenson College Edinburgh
- ▣ Stow College of Further and Higher Education
- ▣ Western Colleges Consortium

Aims

- ▣ 40 learning objects appropriate to the new SQA HN Social Science framework
 - identification of primary sources
 - repurposing into learning objects
 - reuse in partner colleges
 - reuse in English colleges
 - reuse in other contexts

Aims

▣ Workflow models

- analysis of change
- common patterns and significant factors
- models of best practice

Subject Areas

▣ Initial expressions of interest

- psychology
- history
- economics
- women's studies
- politics
- sociology

Experience Base (partners)

- ▣ Subject Specialist Staff
 - little experience
- ▣ e-Learning Support Teams
 - common VLE
 - learning object authoring tools
 - CAA and quizzes
 - training and development
- ▣ Students
 - well established induction programmes

Experience Base (Strathclyde)

- ▣ Track record in e-Learning projects
- ▣ Access to services
 - JISC Legal
 - TOIA
 - RELOAD
- ▣ Project management and support

Current Activity

- ▣ Subject Specialist orientation and familiarisation
- ▣ Support Team orientation and training
- ▣ Benchmarking current workflows
- ▣ Learning Object specification
 - pedagogy
 - structure
 - design
 - interoperability standards
- ▣ Resource identification

Current Activity (project stuff)

- ▣ Website (design)
- ▣ Project team collaborative space
- ▣ Steering Group
- ▣ Consortium agreements
- ▣ etc.

COLOSSUS

📧 Jim Everett

- jim.everett@strath.ac.uk
- 0141 548 2186

